

of circle indicates dissolved solids in parts per million, thus:

waters of high concentration plotted at condensed scale, above scale values being multiplied by 10 (or other constant as indicated). If two scale values are used on one graph, condensed-scale plottings are shaded.

